

THIS IS US

Niko & Nicole Ivanov

Well I guess it's true what they say...timing is everything. We served in the same church together for years, and we never met though we were in the same room more times than we can count. Finally, our paths crossed summer of 2019. We met and it was instant chemistry. Niko knew from the first time he saw me that I would be his wife. We are so honored and thankful that our paths never crossed before the time was right because our relationship has been nothing short of amazing! We got married on September 5th, 2020 and it's been the best decision of our lives thus far!

THIS IS OUR HOME

We get the keys to our new house April 15th 2022
& we can't wait to make it a HOME!

This house is a 4bed/3bath featuring a ton of natural light & beautiful wood flooring with white walls + a beautiful big yard!

As a photographer, I am excited for all the photo oportutites we will have here!
